The name of the Scientific Editor handling two papers in Volume 62, part 2 of the Proceedings was inadvertently omitted. The papers are those by Ramues Gallois (The ‘tunnel’ valleys of East Anglia and Fenland, UK: subaerial, not subglacial) and Martin Cross, Anass Attya & David J. A. Evans (The susceptibility of glacial deposits to liquefaction under seismic loading conditions: a case study relating to nuclear site characterization in West Cumbria). In both cases, the Scientific Editor handling the paper was

Stephen K. Donovan. Professor Donovan also initiated the scientific editing of a third paper in the part: Darrin T. Stead & David J. Batten, Palynology of the Lower Cretaceous Hundley Clay Member of the Claxby Ironstone Formation in eastern England and its biostratigraphic and palaeoenvironmental significance. In this case, the Scientific Editors were Stephen K. Donovan and Stewart Molyneux. The Editors apologise for the omissions and oversight.
