CONTENTS

Editorial 149

Thematic set: The Chalk of the Northern Province

- S. K. Donovan & S. G. Molyneux
  - The Chalk of the Northern Province: a synopsis 151

- Simon P. Mitchell
  - The Chalk Group (Upper Cretaceous) of the Northern Province, eastern England – a review 153

- P. N. Hildreth
  - The distribution and form of flint, with particular reference to the Chalk Group (Upper Cretaceous) of the Northern Province, UK 178

- Felix M. Gradstein & Colin N. Waters
  - Summary of the new stratigraphic guide to the Chalk Group in the UK and Norwegian sectors of the North Sea 187

- John P. Green
  - The macrofauna of the Vale House Flints Member (Burnham Chalk Formation, Upper Turonian, Late Cretaceous) of Lincolnshire and a palaeoenvironmental reconstruction 195

- M. A. Woods
  - Geophysical log characterization of the Flamborough Chalk Formation (Late Cretaceous, Santonian – Early Campanian), East Yorkshire, UK: implications for understanding the onshore and offshore occurrence of the Late Campanian Rowe Chalk Formation 201

- Russell Yeomans
  - Paramoudra: observations on large flint structures from the Chalk (Upper Cretaceous) and flint formation 210

- Malcolm B. Hart
  - The ‘Black Band’: local expression of a global event 217

- Erratum 228

Abstracted and/or indexed in Current Contents, GeoArchive, Geobase, GeoRef, Geological Abstracts, Mineralogical Abstracts, Research Alert and Science Citation Index Expanded (SCI)